

Answers

1. Tiger feet 1974 Mud (Panthera tigris)
2. Crocodile Rock 1972 Elton John (Crocodylidae)
3. I am the Walrus 1967 The Beatles (Odobenus rosmarus)
4. Hungry like the wolf 1982, Duran Duran, (Canis lupus)
5. The Love Cats 1983 the Cure (Felis catus)
6. Roses
7. dandelions
8. grass
9. carnation
10. buttercup
11. Venezuela
12. French Guiana
13. Brazil
14. Bolivia
15. Argentina
16. 1984
17. Middle Earth
18. Sodor
19. Narnia
20. Oz
21. What was the score in last weekend's Champions League final in which Barcelona beat Manchester United? 3-1
22. Which president this week wrote that they "would rather be a Swiss farmer"? Sepp Blatter
23. How many times were buzzers pressed in the first semi final of Britain's Got Talent? 2
24. Ratko Mladic is battling extradition to face war crimes in the Hague, spell Mladic? Mladic
25. True or false The Hague is in Holland? True
26. Who presents Bargain Hunt? Tim Wonnacott
27. What does a conchologist study? Shells
28. Who became Member of Parliament for Huntingdon in 1628? Oliver Cromwell
29. Who became Member of Parliament for Huntingdon in 1983? John Major
30. Who put the first bid on eBay for Princess Beatrice's hideous royal wedding hat? Duncan Bannatyne
31. In geometry what is the name given something with a position but no extension? Point
32. What four letter word refers to a squashed circle but has no mathematical definition? Oval
33. What can be both a container and a verb which involves punching? Box
34. What links the numbers, 1, 4, 9, 16 with the eyes of a TV addict? Square
35. What is the name given to a mixture of clay and water that can be used to help bind ceramics or can be used to paint clay? Slip
36. In which football ground were this year's League One and League Two play offs held? Old Trafford
37. What name is given to a sum of money paid when someone is arrested that acts as a guarantee that they will turn up for trial? Bail
38. In origami diagrams what is indicated by a solid thin line? A Crease

39. What was the name of the comedy in which Alan Davies starred as a chef? Whites
40. The link between 31-39: Cricket
41. In which West Country town or city was Jenny Agutter born? Taunton
42. In which novel do the characters Walter Hartright, Frederick Farlie and Laura Farlie appear?
The Woman in White
43. What word is derived from joining the greek for ancient things and the greek for body of knowledge? Archaeology
44. The predominant flavour of gin comes from which berry? Juniper
45. Which butterfly species over several generations migrates from Canada to Mexico? Monarch Butterfly
46. What is the name of the oldest commissioned warship in the world, which acts as the flagship of the Second Sea Lord of the Royal Navy? HMS Victory
47. Who has been promoted to the premier league alongside QPR and Norwich? Swansea
48. What is the name of the star constellation that represents a hunter? Orion
49. Some Olympic sports take place using water at approximately 19 degrees fahrenheit. Why will these sports not be seen in the London 2012 Olympics? They are winter Olympic sports (on ice)
50. In monopoly how much do you get for coming first in a beauty competition? (You don't but you get £10 for coming second)